Market Opportunity for FSI Campaign Initiatives

FSI coupons remain one of the most cost-effective advertising methods with substantially higher redemption rates than other competing forms of advertising

US CPG Coupon Distribution Volume, by Media (2013)

US CPG Coupon Redemption Volume, by Media (2013)

Kantar Media reported a 4.5% increase in FSI distribution from 2012-13, with over 287 billion coupons distributed

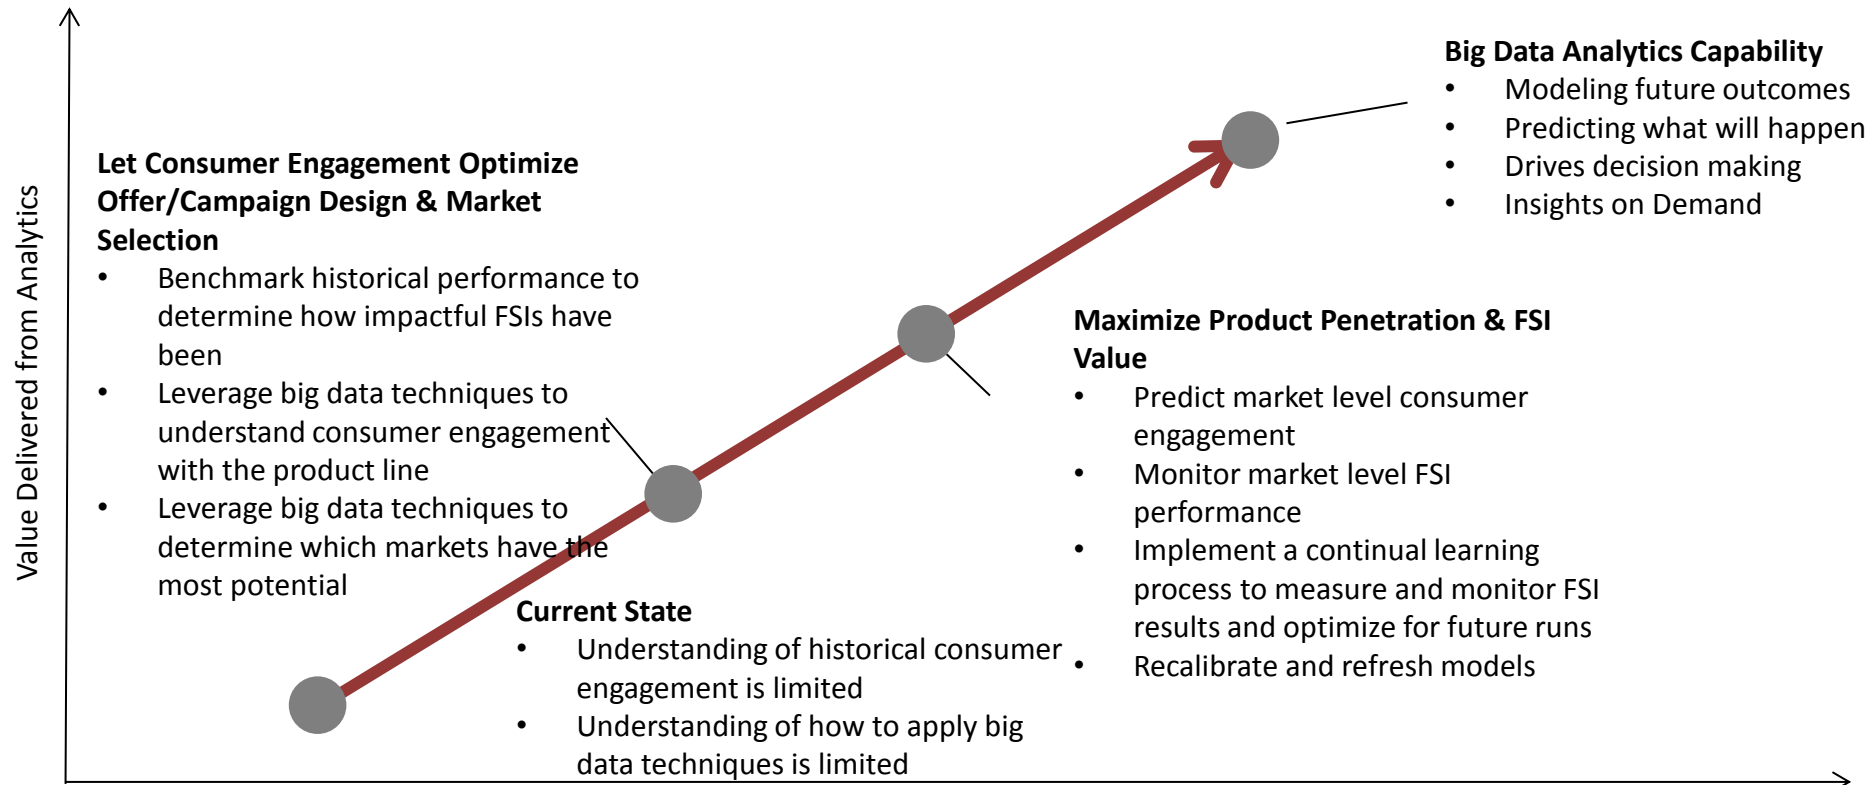

NCH Marketing Services reported a range of 0.3% - 0.9% in redemption rates for CPG firms in the first half of 2013

Key Mandate

To boost awareness, trial and incremental volume of the client's new and growing product line

- ✓ Understand Consumer Engagement with the Product - Who, When, How & Why
- ✓ Drive Marketing Innovation leveraging Big Data Analytics focused on Consumer Engagement insights
- ✓ Re-invigorate one marketing channel - FSIs - leveraging Big Data Analytics
- ✓ Deliver Significant ROI from Product Engagement & Marketing Innovation

Roadmap for Analytics Driven FSI Strategies & Execution

Foundation of Big Data Analytics Capability

1

Create a holistic picture of the customer and gather all relevant data

2

Focus the organization on the right data

3

Leverage predictive models to drive customer equity and optimize marketing decision making

4

Automate analytics and create continual learning cycle to drive business outcomes

Objective - Optimize Offer Design & Market Selection for FSIs

FSI Optimization

- Leverage diverse data sources such as historical distribution data, consumer demographic data, consumer consumption data, etc.
- Identify and target high-potential markets through nBAAP™ platform and proprietary zip-code level indices
- Maximize and Optimize FSI/Coupons Circulation through targeting and selecting markets that will yield the greatest impact on incremental value

1

Phase I: Optimize Offer Design & Market Selection

- Benchmark performance to determine consumer engagement with the product & how impactful FSIs have been in driving that engagement
- Leverage big data techniques to determine which markets have the most potential

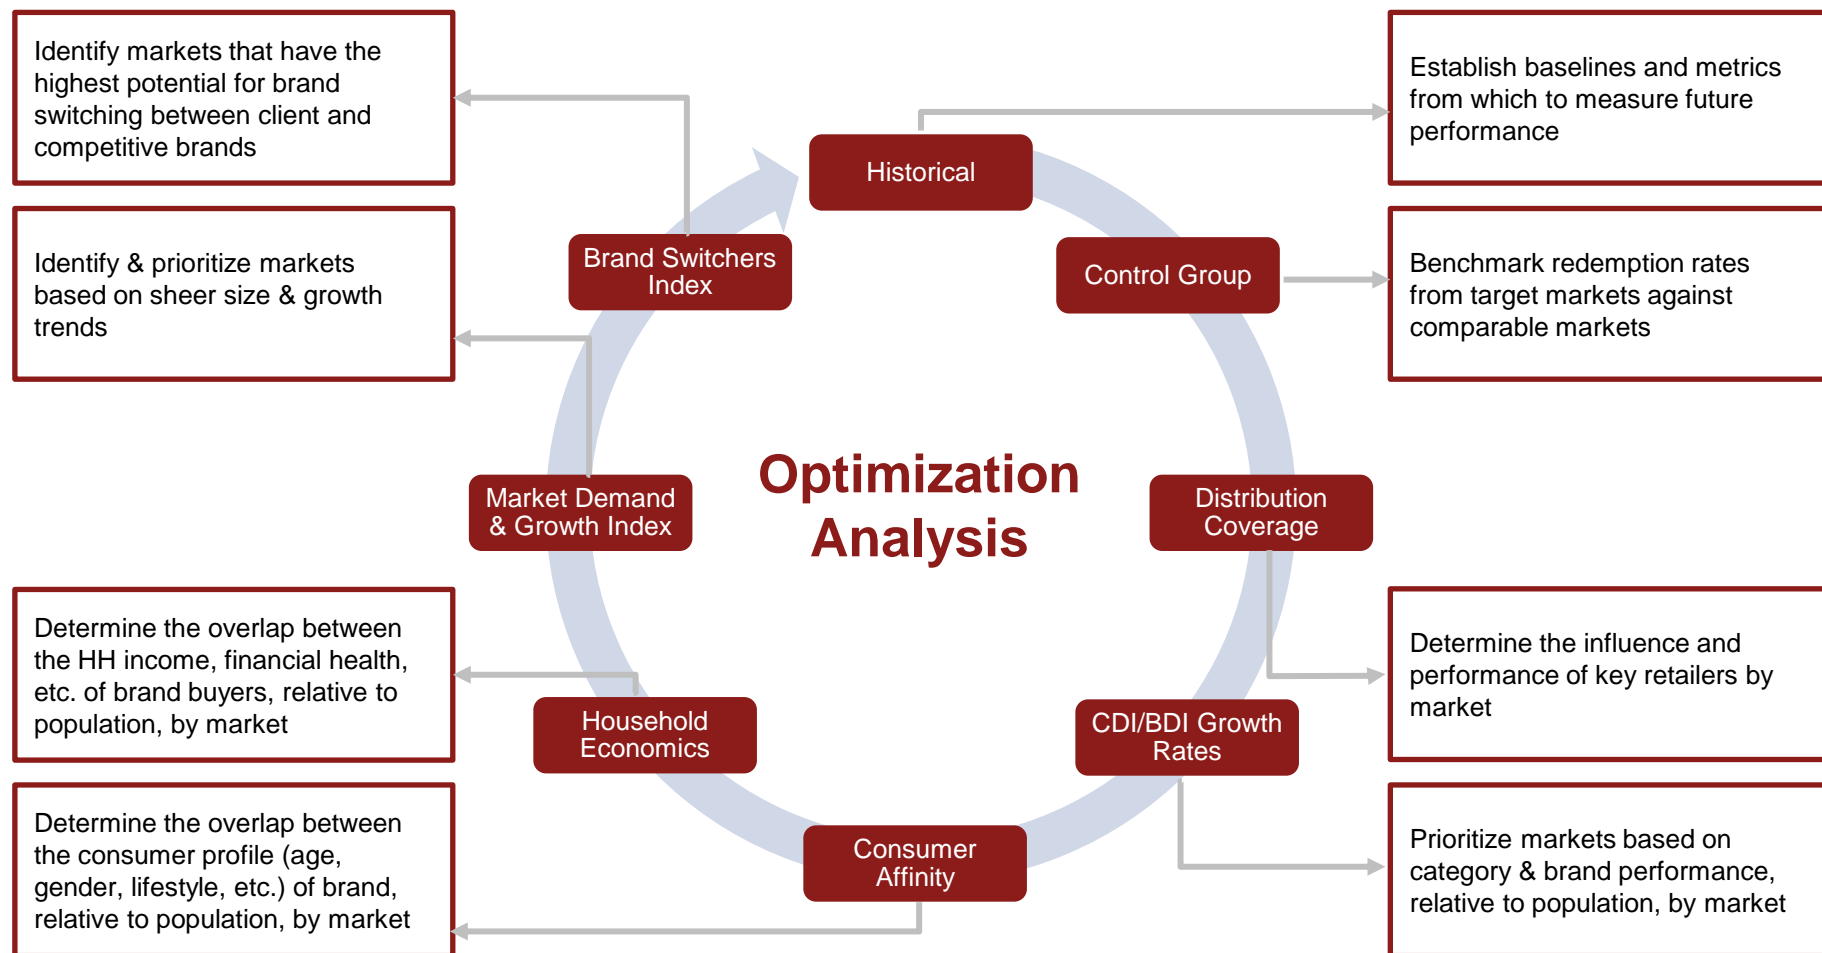

2

Phase II: Maximize FSI Value

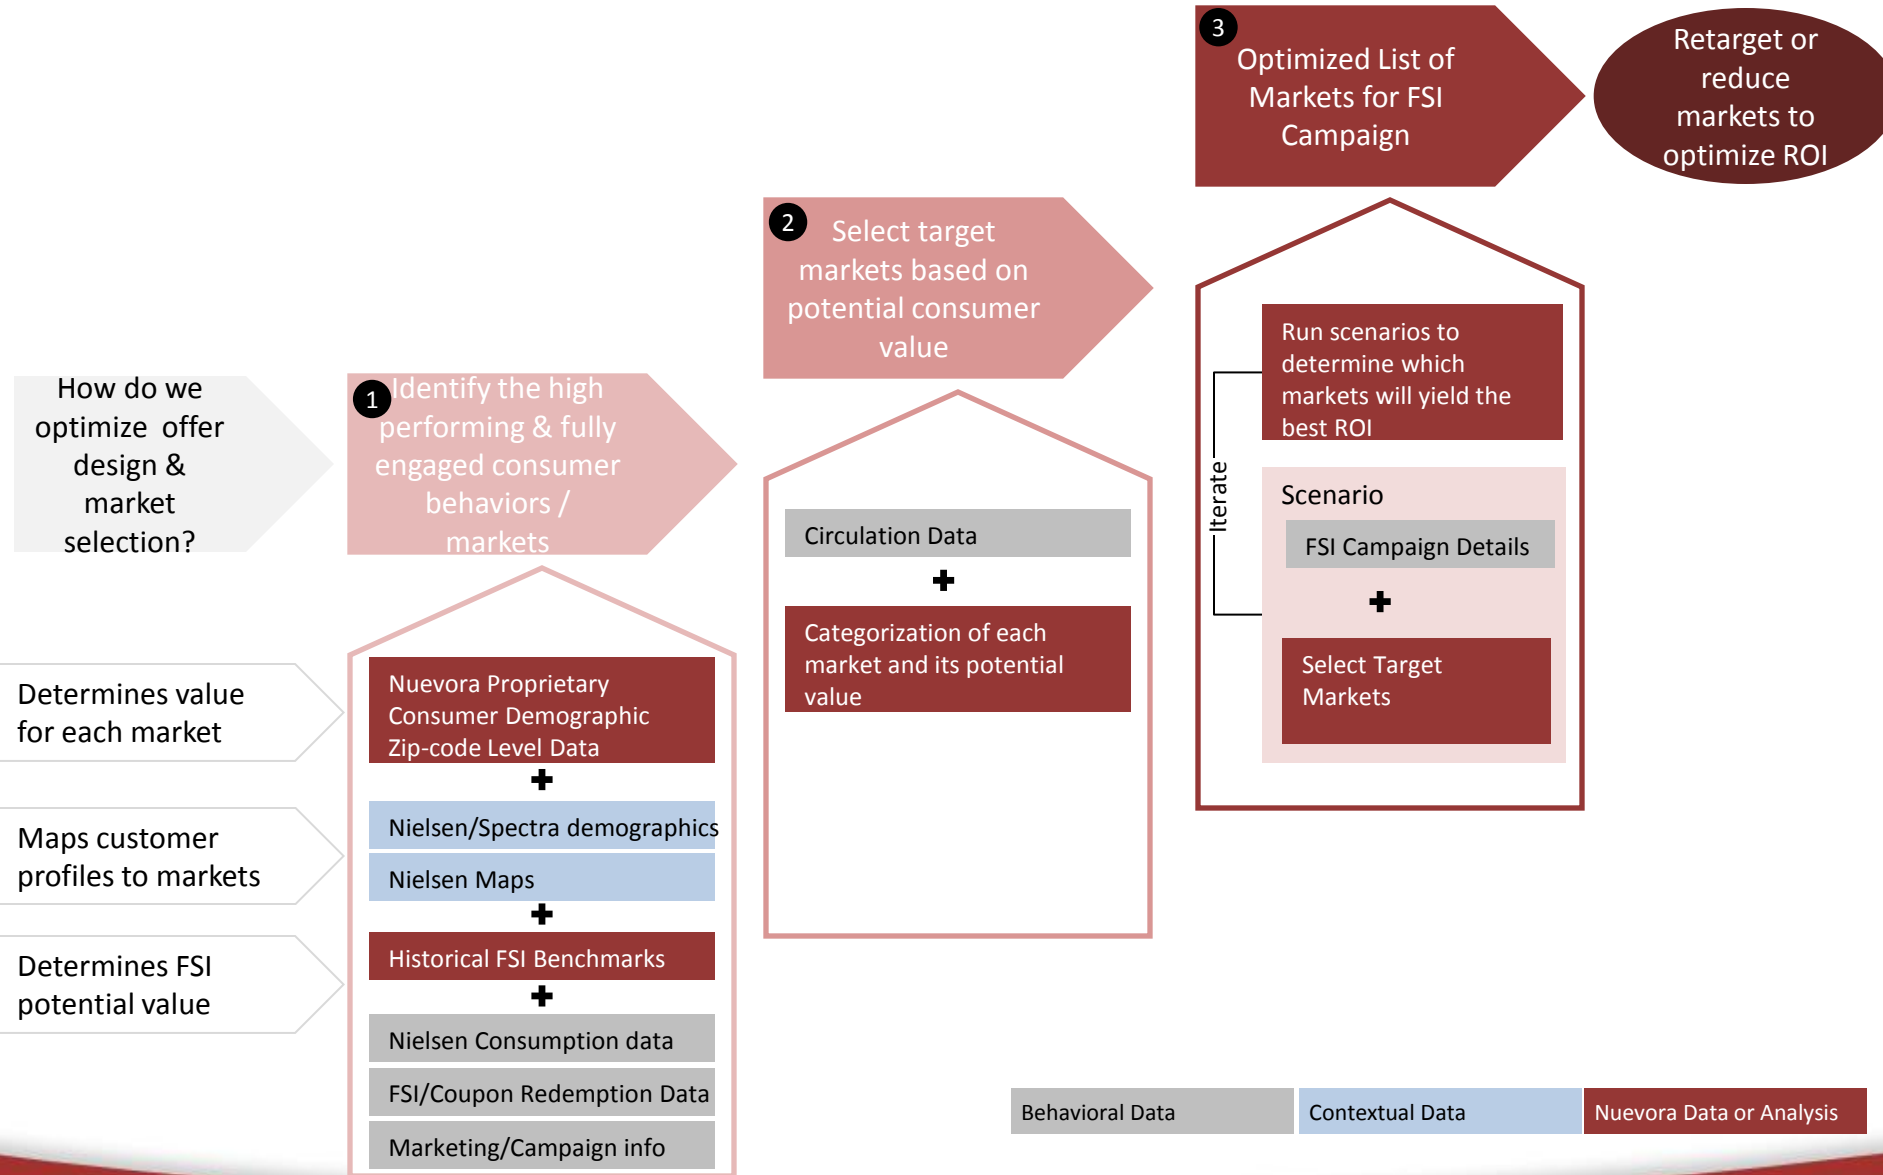

- Monitor market level FSI performance
- Implement a continual learning process to measure & monitor results and optimize for future runs
- Recalibrate and refresh models

Methodology: Multi-Dimensional Analysis enables Understanding of Optimal Consumer Engagement to Achieve Maximum Marketing Value

Each analysis is weighted according to the goals & objectives of each campaign, to determine the optimal strategy

Structured Implementation of Best-Practices Driven Analytics Delivers Continuous Optimization of FSI Campaigns Leading to Enhanced Market Share & Product Profitability
